THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. IV. RALEIGH, N. C., NOVEMBER [illegible], NO. 3.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL TO THE PROGRESS.]

FROM RICHMOND.

Monday, Nov. 10, 1862.

A special dispatch to the Knoxville Register, dated Knoxville, 11th, says: Dispatch from Major-General Sumner states that the movement had taken place in the Cumberland Gap, and that the enemy had left Cumberland Gap yesterday.

The Yankees had left many of their wounded at Cumberland Gap. Eighty-four sick.

McCLELLAN CHANGING HIS NAME.—GUNBOATS NOT THERE.—GAPS OPEN, ETC.

Richmond, Nov. 12.

There is no news from Gen. Lee's army, and no skirmishing reported since Monday.

The Government has no intelligence of a further advance of the enemy, until the belief gains strength in the public mind that McClellan is gradually withdrawing his forces to send them below Richmond.

The communication with the Valley of Virginia by the Mountain Gaps is open.

The reported advance of gunboats up James river has not been confirmed.

During the war with Napoleon, the highest premium on gold in England was 14½, and it continued at that price from December, 1812, until March, 1813.

DEFENCE OF SAVANNAH.—We find the following, in the late message of Gov. Brown, of Georgia, to the Legislature of that State:

I have been informed by the Military Commander at Savannah, that it is intended to make a defence of the city "to extremity," and he requests assistance from the State in the removal of the women and children and other non-combatants from the city. In view of the fate of New Orleans and other cities which have been surrendered to the enemy, I cordially endorse and approve this resolution of the Confederate General. Let us hold the city as long as a house or a brick wall is left standing, behind which our troops can fight; and let the State assume the loss occasioned by the destruction of property, or at least divide it with the sufferers.

It will be necessary that food and shelter be provided for such of the non-combatants as are unable to take care of themselves, as soon as possible, that they may be removed in advance of the attack. I therefore recommend an early appropriation of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars for this purpose.

BLANKETS FOR OUR SOLDIERS.—The following extract, says the Mobile Register, from a letter just received from a gentleman of this city now in Richmond, tells its own story, and needs, we trust no warnish from us to bring the truth home to the hearts of our readers. No patriotic householder that can possibly spare them, will hesitate to bring forth their comforts of this sort, and bestow them upon the brave and gallant men who are fighting the battles of this great revolution:

"It will be impossible, I fear, to supply all our soldiers with blankets for the approaching winter unless liberal contributions of them should be made by families of the Confederate States. Many of these necessary articles were, I know, contributed last winter by the ladies of Mobile and most other places in the Confederacy, and were delivered to an agent who had been appointed by the Governors of the States to receive such contributions. The supply of blankets for our army for the winter near at hand, is as inadequate as it would have been last winter, but for the timely and liberal contributions above mentioned. My wife has expressed her willingness and desire that all our carpets, (nearly all her blankets being contributed last winter,) shall be cut up and formed into blankets for the use of the soldiers of Alabama, to be delivered to such agent as his Excellency, Gov. Shorter, may direct.

To our old Subscribers.

We send this copy of the Progress to all of our old daily subscribers whose whereabouts are known to us. Others will please give us the name of their post office at once, if they want the paper.

On the fall of Newbern many of our daily subscribers were indebted to us in small amounts for subscription, while others again had paid for the paper for a longer period than they had received it, and hence to all such we are indebted small amounts. All this will be arranged and a statement of each subscriber's account given as soon as possible. Those who have paid in advance of the suspension in March last, will have the paper furnished them until the time paid for expires, and those who were in arrears at the time of the suspension will have the paper sent them with a statement of their indebtedness as soon as we can go over our books, which it is hoped they will remit at once.

Owing to the present unsettled condition of affairs we shall issue no Weekly Progress for the present. Persons who want the Progress and have not the advantage of a daily mail, can have it mailed to them once, twice, or three times a week, to suit their mail facilities.

Persons to whom we are indebted for advance payment to the Weekly Progress, at the time of the suspension, will have the Daily furnished to them to the extent of the amount due in each case, upon application, and directions as to where to send it.

Our old subscribers, patrons and friends, visiting the city, are cordially invited to call and see us at our sanctum, on the west side of Fayetteville street, opposite the Post office.

Five Cents.

Our Carrier's are authorized to sell the Progress on the streets and at the Railroad station. Single copies, FIVE CENTS.

PAYMENT OF STATE BOUNTY DUE DECEASED SOLDIERS.

Executive Department, North-Carolina,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
RALEIGH, October 17th, 1862.

General Orders, No. 2.

THE FOLLOWING REGULATIONS ARE PUBlished for the information of those persons wishing to draw bounty of deceased soldiers in accordance with an ordinance of the Convention ratified the 22d day of February, 1862:

REGULATIONS.

1. The payment of bounty to the representatives of deceased soldiers is based upon the certificate of the Commanding officer of the company, who will state the time of the enlistment of the soldier, the date of his decease in service, the amount of bounty already paid by the State and the company and regiment to which he belonged.

2. The claimant will make affidavit before a Magistrate that he or she is the next of kin to the deceased, according to the provisions of the foregoing ordinance of the Convention, and that there is no other person entitled to make claim. The affidavit of the claimant must be sustained by that of one disinterested witness, that the facts stated are correct within his own knowledge, and that he has no interest in the claim. The Magistrate administering the oath will certify to the credibility of the witness, and the clerk of the County Court will certify, under seal, that he is an authorized and acting Magistrate.

3. If the claimant or claimants be minors, payment will be made to the guardian upon the production of the proper certificate under the seal of the Court of his appointment and the sufficiency of his bond—the claim to be proved by him as in others cases.

4. A bounty of fifty dollars, deducting the bounty that may have been previously paid, is due to all persons who may have volunteered for three years or the war, and to all persons mustered into or continued in service under the provisions of the conscription act.

DAILY ENQUIRER

RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY, NOV. 18, 1862.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

The United States steamer transport Ottawa, Capt. Belknap, from Matamoras 14th, had arrived at New York Tuesday.

We learn, by the arrival, also an expedition had left Brazos Santiago on the 6th inst., consisting of 5,000 men and several gunboats. The expedition was to land at Aransas Pass, and thence proceed to Galveston.

Gen. Banks was still at Brazos Santiago.

The Baltimore American says:

Gen. Hascheltine has resigned on the 1st inst., to take the field. That intrepid officer has been commissioned paying Bowling Green on the road to Nashville, and the other Division of the army is moving upon Murfreesboro.

The Baltimore American says:

In a Provincial town there are always plenty of ways for those to amuse themselves who are ready to pay for them. Sometimes one finds a theatre, sometimes a circus, sometimes a concert, sometimes a ball, sometimes a public dinner, sometimes a lecture, sometimes a fair, sometimes a bazaar
